Overview of Romans 6:

- 32 indicatives (statement of fact)
- 4 imperatives (commands in light of what is true)

Doug Moo: [Living in sin] is not possible, as a constant situation, for the one who has truly experienced the transfer out from under the domain, or tyranny, of sin. Sin's power is broken for the believer, and this must be evident in practice.

John Murray: As surely as Christ rose from the dead, so surely shall we walk in newness of life.

John Wesley: "sin remains but does not reign"

Four Steps to Win the War w/ Sin:

#1 _____ War (v.12)

Refuse to Submit to this foreign power.

#2 _____ Back! (v.13)

#3 Surrender to _____ (v.13)

#4 _____ God (v.13)

Douglas Moo: To stop engaging in those sins that have too often become so habitual that we cannot imagine not doing them – is a daunting responsibility. We feel that we must fail. But Paul then reminds us of just what we have become in Jesus Christ: “dead to sin, alive to God.” There has already taken place in the life of the believer a “change of lordship” ... and it is in the assurance of continuing in this new state that the believer can go forth boldly and confidently to wage war against sin.”

When tempted, say this to yourself: What shall I say then? Am I to continue in _____ that grace might increase? May it never be! How shall I who died to _____ still live in it?
