(Sovereignty Part 1)

7 points of God's sovereignty over salvation

A. W. Pink makes in his book, The Sovereignty of God:

- 1) God has “ordained to eternal life” certain ones, and that in consequence of His ordination they, in due time, “believe.”
- 2) God's ordination to salvation of His elect, is not due to any good thing in us nor anything meritorious from us – but solely by His “grace.”
- 3) God has designedly selected the most unlikely objects to be the recipients of His special favors, in order that “no flesh should glory in His presence.”
- 4) God chose His people in Christ before the foundation of the world, not because we were holy – but in order that they “should be holy and without blame before Him.”
- 5) God, having selected certain ones to salvation, He also decreed the means by which His eternal counsel should be made good;
- 6) That the very “grace” by which we are saved was in God's purpose “given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.”
- 7) God's elect stood present before His mind, were “foreknown” by Him, that is, were the definite objects of His eternal love.
