

BIBLICAL PARENTING 101

Week 10: Evangelizing Your Children (Part 2)

DO'S of Evangelism

- Set a Godly Example
- Pray for Their Salvation at All Times
- Communicate the Whole Gospel
(See PDF – “The Gospel for Children” on website)

Be clear and thorough. Create an environment that makes it natural to teach them

Use diagnostic questions:

“Are you sure you would go to heaven if you died today?”

“What would you say to God, if he said, ‘Why should I let you into my heaven?’”

“What has God done to change your life?”

“Who is Jesus to you?”

- Look for Evidence of Salvation
Questions to ask Children to Assess their Profession of Faith
(Modified from Dennis Gunderson, Your Child's Profession of Faith)

BIBLICAL PARENTING 101

DO'S of Evangelism

- Encourage Signs of Conversion (don't assume they could not be saved)

What fruit should we expect from a child believer?

1. Are they able to articulate the gospel with ease and a ready passion for the truth of it?
2. Are they trusting in Jesus alone for the forgiveness of their sins?
3. Do they have an evident love for Jesus?
4. Do they acknowledged their sins and repudiate them (repented of them)?
5. Do they evidence a desire to know and obey God's Word?
6. Have they resisted temptation successfully?
7. Have they made wise spiritual decisions on their own?

- Be Patient and Consistent

Ongoing pursuit not a one-time task. Do not fixate on children making a profession of faith at a young age.

See 2 Tim. 3:14-15).

Remember:

Childhood is a period of seed planting not fruit bearing.
It is a time of preparation not completion.

See Proverbs 22:6

- Entrust them to God's Sovereignty
